Tuesday, July 11, 2023 12:27 PM

- General Information
 - League will be on Sleeper app
 - 12 teams with 2 divisions
 - Half PPR with full PPR for tight ends & 5 point passing touchdowns
 - You can start TE's at flex and SuperFlex and receive the additional .5 PPR
 - Superflex (QB)
Playoffs
 - 7 teams make the playoffs
 - 1st seed gets the bye
 - Playoffs reseeds each round (similar to the NFL)
- Trade Deadline, Waiver wire & New League year
 - Trade deadline is the kickoff of TNF week 14 (December 5th). No matter what the app allows, I will only push trades through that occur before the kickoff
 - Waiver wire will be based off of a $250 FAAB
 - Can trade waiver money
 - League year ENDS the day the fantasy championship ends (Due to actual NFL free agency & the NFL draft)
 - Waivers & free agency is turned off
 - You can still trade during the blackout period - just no waiver wire
 - New league year starts a week before the rookie draft
 - All taxi players (that are reaching their deadline for how long they can stay on taxi) must be elevated by this date
 - FAAB money resets
 - Free agency/waivers are opened AFTER THE DRAFT
 - After the draft, we will no free agent will be "freely" able to pick up until the Friday before opening kickoff (August 30th).. Until then, there will be waiver periods
 - ◆ All free agents will be on waiver wire with the waivers clearing on certain dates at 8am (to promote use of waiver wire money)
 - Timeline
 - ◆ Now -> End of draft (May 10th) = no free agents at all (completely locked)
 - ◆ End of draft -> July 21st= no free agents. There will only be 2 total waiver days during this period - all other days are considered a "dry period"
 - ◇ May 12th
 - ◇ June 17th
 - ◆ July 22nd -> August 30th = There will be waivers every Friday at 8am. Saturday through Thursday the players are locked
 - ◆ August 31st -> September 5th (opening kickoff) = everyone is fully available on free agency
 - ◆ September 5th -> end of season = typical waiver wire (unlocks on Wednesdays)
 - Rules & Rule Committee
 - To avoid unfair trades, we will have a trade & rules committee of Vin Durso and I
 - We will internally vote on every trade (to prevent collusion) but will intend to push every trade through
 - If people have questions on rules or want to incorporate new rules run it by us
 - To avoid tanking,
 - Small prize for high weeks & playoff bids
 - Forcing teams to set lineups or a loss of a 3rd round draft pick and/or $50 of next year's

- Teams that don't make the playoffs will have tasks for the next year (see league to do list).
- Every team will have 4 guys on their roster (cornerstone guys) that NEED to be played every week. If they are benched, Vin and I will discuss & put them in ourselves or let the owner know they need to change it.
- When 2 teams that are perceived to be tanking are playing against each other, both teams will be FORCED to play the lineup with the HIGHEST projected points. There will be no rule for putting their best rookies on taxi and also trading their best veterans.
- If a positional player is named as a Starting quarterback for a game (or it is stated that he will play 50% or more of the snaps at QB), regardless of their sleeper position, the player can only play QB or SuperFlex that week.
 - If a positional player randomly throws a wildcat touchdown, this will count for their points
- Scoring nuances
 - If any offensive player makes a tackle/interception/forced fumble, we will follow however SLEEPER counts the scoring.
 - If any defensive player scores offensive points (yards/TDs), we will follow however SLEEPER counts the scoring.
- Changes in 2025
 - Addition of 4th round rookie draft has been added
 - Addition of a taxi spot & roster spot will be added after the season

Draft

Tuesday, July 11, 2023 12:40 PM

Supplemental drafts

- Will be 3 rounds of all the most recent draft class & the 3 players that are dropped from each team
 - Draft will start May 10th (Friday) at 12pm and go on until it is completed
 - It will be a slow draft and each pick will have 4 hours to make their pick to research & trade pick (please don't intentionally waste the time)
 - The draft will stop at midnight each night and re-open at 7am the following morning
 - Right after the draft, both of the previous teams in the championship will draft the teams and I will set the schedule (see Divisions/Schedule tab)
 - Can trade these draft picks for players if you want to Any of these rookies that will take time to pan out, can be placed on the "taxi roster spots"
- Draft order is set similar to NFL
 - Non-playoff teams
 - Inverse draft order based off the regular season (last place gets first pick)
 - Playoff teams
 - Inverse draft order based off post-season standings
 - Whether a team ties, agrees to tie, or ANY other nuanced occurrence, the draft pick TIE BREAKER will be based off of regular season record.
- Draft picks unlock 3 years in advance (for instance, instantly after the 2024 rookie draft, the 2027 draft picks became available in the app)
 - For the health of the league, you CAN NOT fully trade away a 1st round pick 3 years in advance. You are able to SWAP 1st round picks within someone but you cannot trade that pick away completely until the beginning of week 10 (Tuesday morning after week 9)
 - For instance
 - In 2024 until week 9, you MUST have a 2027 1st on your team (can be yours or someone elses)
 - Once we enter week 10 in 2024, you are able to trade your 2027 1st.

 - If you want to trade one of these players, you have to elevate them to the roster first (may have to drop someone in this case)

Divisions/Schedule

Tuesday, July 11, 2023 12:40 PM

- Divisions
 - There will be 2 divisions
 - Each year the 2 teams that make the championship will draft their divisions (winner gets to decide if he gets 1st pick or next 2)
 - For the first year, whoever gets the last 2 picks of the draft (decision NOT draft spot) will draft the divisions (before the draft obviously)
 - At the end of the season, the winner of each division will be the 1 & 2 seed.
 - Whoever is the 1 seed will receive a 1st round bye for the playoffs
 - Schedule
 - 14 weeks (15-17 are the playoffs)
 - Weeks 1-5 (divisional matchups part 1)
 - ◆ Each team will play every team in their division
 - Weeks 6-9 (interleague play)
 - ◆ Each team will play teams in the other division. Each team will NOT play 2 teams in the other division
 - Weeks 10-14 (divisional matchups part 2)
 - Each team will play every team in their division
 - Based off of the "legend" below, the schedule will be populated using the numbers from the division draft.
 - Sleeper requires the "supplemental" draft to be complete in order for me to populate the schedule so that will be completed within 1 week of when the draft ends
